

"How You See It"

A juried exhibition of photography, including work by high-school and middle-school students in or around Washington.

VisArts announces an amazing opportunity for Washington-area high school and middle school photographers to have their work juried by Frank Goodyear and potentially exhibited at VisArts along with professional work. Submissions are due by January 9th.

To enter, simply submit any original photo image shot since 2006. Digitally manipulated images may be included. Selected works will be printed and hung in the VisArts Portfolio Gallery from March 10 to May 23, 2008. Some works may be shown in rotation via projector. Student works will not be offered for sale through our gallery.

About the Juror, Frank Goodyear: Frank Goodyear is the Assistant Curator of Photography at the National Portrait Gallery, and a faculty member in the Department of American Studies at The George Washington University. He completed his undergraduate work at Princeton University and received his Ph.D. in the Department of American Studies at the University of Texas. He is the author of Red Cloud: Photographs of a Lakota Chief, and is currently conducting research on the career of Zaida Ben-Yusuf (1869-1933) at the National Portrait Gallery.
