Please respond by March 10 to receive recognition on VisArts In Bloom materials.

Don't let the winter doldrums get you down... spring is around the corner! We're still not able to get together in person as we'd all like, but that's not stopping us. Join us on March 20, 2021 at 7PM for a creative evening in the comfort of your own home where you can paint in your pj's. Art supplies and goodies to eat and drink will be delivered right to your front door. Proceeds from the event will support our VisAbility Art Lab, which transitioned to an online program last March.
